NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF LETTER REQUESTING RELIEF

TO: _____

This will confirm that on _____ the Bankruptcy Court received an email from you (copy attached) that appears to request that the Court take certain action. Please be advised that you must file either a formal motion, application, or a complaint to request any relief you may be seeking. Emails or letters do not preserve any deadline that may apply nor are they filed on the Court's Official Docket. The Court does not have a complaint form. However, a generic form motion package is being forwarded to you with this Notice. Additional motion packages are also available on the Court's web site, www.njb.uscourts.gov. If you do not have access to the internet, you may contact the clerk's office for a copy.

The Court will not take any action regarding your email unless you file a formal pleading with the Clerk and serve the appropriate parties.

You should consider obtaining legal counsel to advise you in connection with relief you may be seeking. Copies of this notice are being provided to counsel for the Debtor, the Plan Administrator, and the United States Trustee.

Dated: April 25, 2024

Jeanne A. Naughton, Clerk

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Honorable Judge Papalia,

I hope this email finds you in good health.

You received correspondence regarding this now defunct stock about shareholder rights along with various claims I imagine you found ridiculous.

I do not know what, if any, knowledge the court has of this matter so I will assume it is minimal to communicate the issue. Everything I have written here can be verified. You might already be familiar with what I am about to discuss due to Neelay Das, a person who tried to present a case pro se for shareholders not long ago.

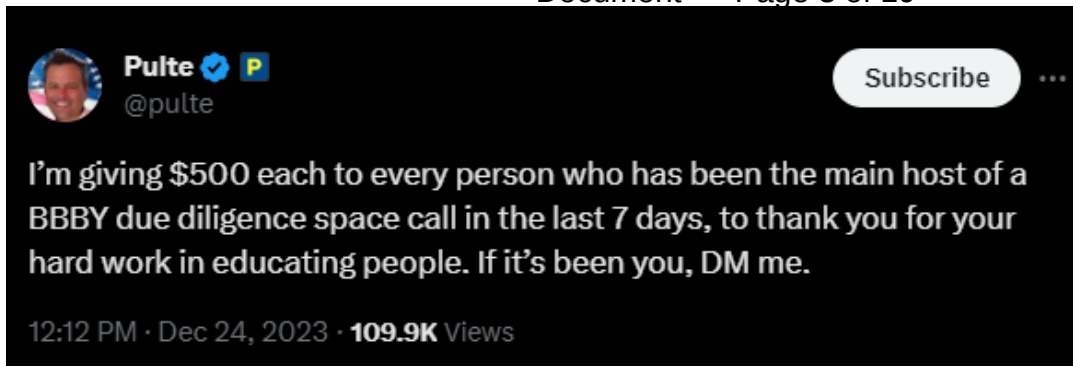

I am writing in the hopes of informing you that certain individuals are directly responsible for these claims of shareholder rights that are more like conspiracy theories. They operate online behind the pretense of 'entertainment' or 'education' while repeating "this is not financial advice" as they deceive the vulnerable former shareholders of BBBY(Q) and people invested in meme stocks. They are essentially an online subculture like incels with elements of Qanon, sovereign citizen and cargo cults.

Many stories of how people's lives have been ruined as a result of this group can be found online. There would be no reason for the poor souls to believe such nonsense, no reason for them to have held the stock into bankruptcy, were it not for the following people who have profited from the financial destruction, misery and suffering of their victims.

The main figure is Alexander Zarac who goes by @ThePPseedsShow on Twitter and hosts a show on YouTube by the same name. He supposedly made at least one hundred thousand dollars from just one episode of his show. He has a history of pumping stocks and crypto.

Mr Zarac's success can be attributed to Bill Pulte, @pulte on Twitter, who ingratiated himself with the BBBY community from an interaction with Ryan Cohen on Twitter. You may be aware that there is a group of people that worship Ryan Cohen like he is Jesus of the stock market. Mr Pulte has placed himself as a 'false prophet'. Mr Pulte has been enabling these people, giving them false hope, exploiting their desperation for his own motives.

There were instances where he directly contributed to the spreading of misinformation disguised as "due diligence" and "education".

Mr Pulte has appeared multiple times as a guest on ThePPseedsShow. On the episode dated September 26 2023 Mr Pulte incentivized the audience to make 'donations' of $500 each to Mr Zarac.

This lead to an event in Florida the attendees believed was for BBBY but Mr Pulte misappropriated for $PHM. Attendees were paid money out of what they paid for the tickets to the event to buy PHM stock. Part of this deal was that they sign over their shareholder rights. Mr Pulte allegedly has personal ambitions for the company.

Another figure is @sboho or jake2b on Twitter. He is a regular on Mr Zarac's show. To this day he continues to spin and present official filings and documents as bullish, as if shareholders will be "made whole". He is the source of such claims made by Sheiliann Pena who I believe sent you a letter containing "concerns". Her claims might as well be quoting jake2b.

The last person I would like to bring attention to is Michael Jones @MindandEmotion7 on Twitter. This person contributes the more creative or rather insane conspiracies. He is supposedly a medical professional who definitely should not be practising medicine.

These aforementioned individuals have promoted and even stated outright defamatory sentiment against the Plan Administrator Michael Goldberg. Perhaps you are aware of the harassment Mr Goldberg has received?

I do not know if you are the appropriate person to send this to besides the SEC or DOJ. The hope is that at least you might be able to unequivocally address these issues officially on record in court so that the matter can be put to rest for the retail investors being strung along by the above group.

Attention is on the bankruptcy so the message will be received. For their benefit if you can state in the simplest terms so that a child can understand it would be much appreciated.

Please call out the aforementioned individuals by their names stating that they are wrong, have been wrong for a long time, or however you deem appropriate to handle this.

They believe former shareholders of BBBY(Q) will be "made whole" and will receive cash or equity despite all the previous statements that they will not.

Please disperse any theories about shorting in the stock as they believe that short positions will somehow reopen with issuing of new equity resulting in a short squeeze. They believe short positions are still open on the stock despite it being delisted, extinguished, deemed worthless etc.

Please state Ryan Cohen's lack of involvement since he sold his stake, that Ryan Cohen will not save former shareholders of BBBY(Q).

Please state that Overstock, Dream on Me, Beyond, any entity even remotely related to the former BBBY has nothing to do with them. They do not understand, are in denial or misinformed about the IP being sold.

They believe the NOLs are like an asset that can be used for tax benefit.

Please state that Teddy has nothing to do with any of this (Teddy is a series of children's books from Ryan Cohen they believe he's using to secretly communicate with them a la The Da Vinci Code). They believe Ryan Cohen registered the Teddy trademark to form a keiretsu, possibly under the name GMErica, of various companies like BBBY, Blockbuster and Sears to compete with Amazon.

Thank you for your time. Your assistance is very much appreciated.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING A MOTION

I. General Instructions

- a. The information in this document and the prompts contained in the attached motion package are not legal advice and are not a substitute for legal advice.
- b. A motion is a formal request for relief from the court. These instructions and the prompts contained in the documents will help you prepare the motion. A “motion package” typically consists of four documents: 1) a Notice of Motion; 2) a Certification in Support of the Motion, including any Exhibits; 4) a Certification of Service; and 3) a proposed Order. (Some motions require the filing of a brief or memorandum of law where the litigant provides legal arguments setting forth why they believe they are entitled to the relief sought.). See Local Rule 9013-1 and 9013-3.
- c. When you submit your motion to the Clerk’s Office, you must provide 1 original set of documents and 1 copy.
  - i. If you file the motion in person at the clerk’s office, the copy will be given back to you marked “Filed.”
  - ii. If you mail the motion to the Clerk’s Office, you must include a self-addressed, stamped envelope for the return of your filed Motion.
- d. You may be required to pay a fee at the time of the filing of the motion. For a list of motions that require the payment of a fee, see the court’s web site, www.njb.uscourts.gov/court-info/court-fees.
  - i. If you are required to pay a fee, payment must be in the form of certified check, money order, or attorney check. The Clerk’s Office will not accept personal checks or cash. Registered efilers may make payment by credit card.
- e. You do not have to appear in court on the hearing date unless someone objects or responds to your motion. If a party objects or files a response and you do not appear at the hearing your motion may be denied. See Local Rule 9013-3.
- f. Complete the blank forms in this package by following the prompts.
- g. Hearing date: Each judge’s hearing dates are available on the court’s web site: <http://www.njb.uscourts.gov/judges-info/hearing-dates>. Generally, hearings on motions must be scheduled for at least 21 days after the date the motion is filed. Some motions must be scheduled for up to 30 days after the filed date of the motion. Each judge has guidelines regarding hearing dates on their web page. Paying attention to the guidelines will ensure that your motion is heard timely. See Local Rule 9013-2.
- h. Signatures: All documents must be signed and dated.

- i. After the hearing on your motion, you will receive a copy of the order the judge signed in the mail (if you are the debtor, or debtor's attorney). If you are not the debtor or debtor's attorney, you will receive a notice in the mail that indicates an order has been entered. You may view and download a copy of the Order at www.pacer.gov. You may also view and print the order from the public access terminals in each clerk's office. There is a 10 cents per page fee for printing documents from the public terminals.

NOTE: If you do not have internet access, you may contact the clerk's office concerning filing fees and hearing dates. Please contact the office where the case in which you wish to file your motion is pending.

II. TERMS RELATED TO YOUR MOTION:

Motion: A formal request for relief filed with a court.

Notice of Motion: A "notice" to interested parties indicating that a request for relief has been filed. The Notice informs other litigants that if they object to the relief sought they must file an objection or response to the motion; it also includes the time within which the objection/response must be filed. The notice sets forth the hearing date, time and location.

Certification in Support of Motion: The Certification contains the facts that the filer believes the court needs to know to grant the motion. The Certification must be completed by someone with "personal knowledge" of the facts.

Service: The act of providing a copy of the filed stamped motion package to all parties who may have an interest in outcome of the motion. See Local Rule 9013-2.

Certification of Service: The filer must set forth in the Certification of Service the name and address of each party served, their relationship to the case, and the manner in which they were served. The Certification must be signed by the person who served the documents. See Local Rule 9013-2.

Proposed Order: The proposed order contains the relief the filer seeks. The judge will decide at the hearing whether to grant the filer's request for relief. If the relief is granted, the judge will sign the proposed order. See Local Rule 9013-4.
